

Characters:

the curtain
the narrator
the king
the queen
the princess Life
youth
Nicotine
the prince Doctor
the horse

Act # 1.

The curtain rises.

Author: Once upon a time in a far away country there lived a king and a queen. They loved each other very much. They helped one another, kissed and hugged, laughed and sang songs together!

The only thing that made them sad was that they had no children. They prayed to the Lord for giving them a child and the Lord was so kind to give them a beautiful daughter.

The curtain falls.

Act #2.

The curtain rises.

The king and the queen were so thankful to the Lord for giving them a little girl that they decided to give her a special name – Life!

Life was a wonderful child, very kind, beautiful and talented! She sang all the time and danced so beautifully that people from all over the world came to see her dancing!

The curtain falls.

Act # 3.

The curtain rises.

The princess Life soon turned into a beautiful young lady. She had a lot of friends but the most devoted one was a pretty girl Youth. They were always together dancing, singing, laughing, then jumping, running all around the castle.

Once Youth introduced a very handsome fellow to princess Life. The fellow's name was Nicotine. Life did not like Nicotine. When he was near she could not breathe, she sneezed and coughed, but soon as it always happens she got used to Nicotine and could not even live a single day without him.

The curtain falls.

Act # 4.

The curtain rises.

Soon the king and the queen noticed that their lovely daughter became too pale and sad. She could not dance as she had a bad cough.

The king and the queen cried and did not know what to do. They tried to forbid their daughter to date with Nicotine, but that was useless. The princess could not stop dating as by that time she was badly addicted to Nicotine.

The curtain falls.

Act # 5.

The curtain rises.

The king and the queen decided to call a wonderful prince Doctor from a far away country to help the beautiful princess Life.

The prince Doctor called for his magic horse, mounted on it and galloped to help the princess. Doctor came right in time! He made Nicotine run away for ever!

Then he put the princess on the horse, mounted on the horse himself and they happily came back to the castle.

The curtain falls.

Act # 6.

The curtain rises.

The king and the queen were so happy that they kissed each other, then they kissed the princess, then they kissed the prince, who was so happy that he kissed the princess, the king, the queen. Then all of them kissed the horse!

Doctor and Life soon got married and were happy all their lives!

The curtain falls.

The End!